Men get

experiments

It is a long, low, 3-level structure.
 It is in a closed in area, possibly by other buildings. Some people in the building wear dark green uniform-like clothing.
 There are chemical smells in the building.
 Activity off in the distance - no strong impressions. One man at the site has a very scientific "feel" and "appearance", i.e., you typical disheveled, distant scientist.

52 Activities at the <sup>site</sup> are long term, but are not resolvable with the eye. They will be abandoned through either frustrated efforts on behalf of those working the problem or by the decision of someone in power who has "had enough" - let's get on with more important issues attitude. There is also a feeling of a change in the balance of power.
